

NAME: _____

Comic Strip Outline

You will create your own graphic novel. Think about the main characters, the main problem in the story, the things that get in the characters' way and how your story ends. Use the outline to get started with your story. Remember to draw everything large enough for the reader to see what is happening, because you will tell the story through pictures and speech bubbles when your characters talk to one another.

start here

Caption: